

Teaching Medieval: A Professional Development Series

Constructing and Revising Syllabi

Advised by Prof. Steve Kruger

The Pearl Kibre Medieval Study presents a series of workshops that will examine how to teach the Middle Ages at the undergraduate level. This first event will bring together our own syllabi for various courses and disciplines. We will discuss such subjects as course goals, assignment sequences, and readings selection.

Please RSVP to medieval.study@gmail.com and specify if you would like to share your syllabus. This will enable us to print enough copies for the event.

Thursday, January 12, 5:30pm
The Graduate Center, CUNY, Room 5105

<http://pkms.commons.gc.cuny.edu/>

Sponsored by the Pearl Kibre Medieval Study and the Doctoral Students' Council